4-H camp brings young people to campus

Summary: The event explored the four H's: head, heart, hands, and health.

(June 28, 2010)-Area 4-Hers gathered at the University of Minnesota, Morris for a four-day camp in June 2010. “Hangin 10 in 2010” was the theme for the summer event. Campers learned about physical fitness as well as community service, responsibility, being a good citizen, and flags. The youth played games with 4-H leaders as a way to explore the four H’s in 4-H: head, heart, hands, and health.

At the closing of the camp, the youth campers participated in a color ceremony.
